BUCHANAN'S.
RED SEAL.
BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

BUCHANAN'S RED SEAL is inspired by the blend crafted by James Buchanan & Co. over 100 years ago, which was enjoyed by the British Royal Family on the Royal tour to mark the accession of Edward VII to the throne in 1901.

The House of Buchanan's has specially selected casks of aged Scotch whiskies to create this exceptional blend. Whiskies with a prominent peat flavour from the Island of Islay are combined with fine Grain whiskies and Highland Malt whiskies, including unique expressions of Dalwhinnie Single Malt whisky reserved exclusively from James Buchanan's home distillery, to bring mellowness and balance to the blend.

BUCHANAN'S RED SEAL, is a true BUCHANAN'S style blend, full bodied, intense, with strong character, balanced and with smoky lingering finish.

At its heart, the BUCHANAN'S RED SEAL is a symbol of guarantee and quality.
